

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

January 23, 1998 LB 656

SENATOR JONES: Yes.

SENATOR WITEK: Oh, okay. So as for the zoning, the county people, the local people will still have a lot...the final say for that use?

SENATOR JONES: Yes, yes.

SENATOR WITEK: Okay. And this council is just to try to get everybody together to work together across these four counties?

SENATOR JONES: Yes, that's right.

SENATOR WITEK: Okay. Okay, thank you for your time.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, maybe I'm going to appear hard-nosed on this because of the status of the bill and so forth, but I'm not, I'm not in favor of letting this bill move at this point. There is too much at stake here. There is money, state money to be obligated. We don't know for sure what role these counties are going to play, and we don't know...now I think I know from reading it what's going to happen if one of these counties or one of these other entities decides to pull out. If one of these counties is involved and the populace in that county does not like what this, this organization is doing, they just put in new commissioners or tell those who want to stay in that position, you better pull out of this thing, so they pull out. The whole thing comes down. The whole thing crashes down, it's a house of cards that is being built here. And it sounds good, and, again, people do want to be accommodating. But if I just let the thing go at this point, it gets to Select. Problems that I see are not dealt with. And I was then not put in a position, I allowed a situation to develop that I don't feel ought to exist. This bill doesn't have to go away. This bill can be prioritized by somebody if it's that important. And I think it is a big bill. I think it deals with a very important and crucial issue, not just this river, but the whole attitude of Nebraskans and the Legislature about environmental activities, the federal/state relationships, I even saw where Senator Wittek shows that she's
